STATEMENT OF THE OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY CONCERNING RECENTLY SIGNED CITY OF PITTSBURGH GUN LEGISLATION

The Office of The District Attorney cannot legally approve any private criminal complaints concerning legislation that has not yet taken effect. The gun legislation recently passed in the City of Pittsburgh has three components with two different effective dates. The first two scheduled to take effect 60 days from April 9, 2019 and the third, 120 days from April 9, 2019.

Therefore, the office will not be considering any such complaints until such time as someone is legally cited.
